THE DE-CLUTTER CHALLENGE

On February the first you throw out one piece of clutter – on the second you throw out two pieces ... by the time you make it to the 28th day of February you will have removed 406 pieces from your home. Baby steps all the way – and a prize to anyone who makes it all the way through the month!!!

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

www.Mortagefreeinthree.com